

Meath Volunteer Centre

Meath Volunteer Centre is a county-wide community based service that offers support and training to any organisation based in County Meath on all aspects of volunteer management in order to encourage best practice across the sector. We currently work with over 200 volunteer involving organisations in Meath helping with recruiting suitable volunteers, promoting their volunteering opportunities, Processing Garda Vetting applications and providing training and resources in volunteer management.

Volunteer Leadership Training

Meath Volunteer Centre is excited to announce that we will be delivering our new Volunteer Leadership Training Programme at the end of September. The training consists of four modules delivered in a hands on, participative style and is designed to provide you with a best practice volunteer leadership framework for involving volunteers in your organisation.

Module Overview:

Module 1: Planning for Volunteer Involvement

Module 2: Volunteer Engagement

Module 3: Day-to-day Management of Volunteers

Module 4: Dealing with challenging situations and programme development

Training will run over two full days and is €40 to attend. Lunch will be provided on both days. Places are limited therefore BOOKING IS ESSENTIAL. Please contact the office on 046 92 80790 to book your place.

Volunteer Managers Network

We are delighted to invite you to our second Volunteer Managers Network meeting of 2017 which will be held on Friday 1st September from 10.30 to 12.30 at our offices in Kells.

The first hour of the meeting will focus on Fundraising. There will be a short informative workshop called 'Putting the FUN into Fundraising' which will look at new and innovative ways in which your organisation can host fundraising events.

Following the workshop you will have the opportunity to network with others attending receiving information, advice and support on all aspects of volunteer management from Meath Volunteer Centres staff and those in attendance.

Booking is essential. To book your place please contact Sally Ann using contact details below.

Organisation Case Study

Meath Volunteer Centre has helped Le Chéile not only to find volunteers with great passion but also to advertise our work within the not-for-profit community within Meath. They are a valuable resource who blend the personal touch with professional practice, which makes working with them effective, efficient and time saving. They are a great resource for those looking to volunteer and those of us looking for volunteers. Many thanks for your help and support!
